Mr. Levi Eshkol,
Prime Minister's Office,
Jerusalem, Israel.

Dear Mr. Eshkol,

I am coming to Israel for ten days on January 23rd, to settle a number of urgent matters with regard to our various Jewish Observer editions. I would also very much like to meet you and tell you of some of our new projects which have proved very successful.

I would also very much like to just hear your views for my benefit - not an interview and not a request for any help. I hope you can spare me a little time.*

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
