Dear Mr. Selzer,

I have just returned from a visit overseas to find your letter of January 14th.

I am afraid that the time the Prime Minister has at his disposal is so severely limited as to rule out the possibility of an interview.

However, I shall be very glad to discuss this matter with you and to the extent that I am familiar with his views could perhaps be of some slight help to you.

If you should care to arrange an appointment please call my secretary at your convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Syd Applebaum.
Secretary for Public Affairs.
