Dear Mr. Frankel,

Thank you for your letter of January 21st to the Prime Minister.

I am afraid that the many calls on the Prime Minister's time for the next few months will very likely rule out the type of interview which you indicate. Should Mr. Scelman see the Prime Minister during March and should the conversation develop along the lines you suggest I shall be glad to see to it that a transcript is made available for you along the lines set out in your letter.

I know this may sound rather indefinite but from my experience this is, oddly enough, the most efficient way of dealing with this type of request.

With the Prime Minister's best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Syd Applebaum.
Secretary for Public Affairs.
