Dear Comrade Speiser,

During the recent years, I have interviewed several european statesmen for the Central Organe of the DGB "Welt der Arbeit" (The World of Work). So, I spoke with the statesministers : Erlander, Gerhardsen and Kampmann, the leader of the opposition in his time Gaitskell and the austrian Vice-Cancellier Fittermann. All the interviews were in connection with questions of social politics.

From October 26 to November 9, I am invited by the Political Education Centre of the Government in Israel. I shall also visit Tel-Aviv, Jerusalem and Haifa. The Editing office and I myself would be very pleased if you could, during my stay in Israel, arrange for me an interview with the Israeli Prime Minister. This interview should be mainly centered on questions dealing with social order in your country.

Could you be kind enough to give a favourable answer to our request, and should the prime Minister agree, I would send over to you my questions.

I hope you shall be in a position to help me and I shall be pleased to hearing from you.

With best regards,

K.-H. Briam
